Dan Gilbert

Majority Owner, Cleveland Cavaliers
Chairman and Founder, Quicken Loans Inc.

Dan Gilbert is Chairman and Founder of Quicken Loans, the nation's largest online home lender.

Dan also is majority owner of the NBA Cleveland Cavaliers basketball team and operator of the Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland, Ohio. In addition, he led the purchase of an American Hockey League (AHL) franchise renamed the Lake Erie Monsters that began play in Fall 2007 at Quicken Loans Arena.

Dan became majority owner of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers in March 2005. In the three years he has owned the Cavaliers, he has led a complete overhaul of the front office, coaching staff, player personnel, and game presentation.

In addition, the ownership group has invested over $27 million in Quicken Loans Arena upgrades and renovations, including new fan seats, an HD-quality center-hung video scoreboard unit, video and sound systems, arena graphics, signage, security, player locker rooms, suite upgrades and administrative offices, as well as the development of a new and separate $25 million player development and training center named Cleveland Clinic Courts.

In his second year of ownership, the Cavaliers won the Eastern Conference Championship by beating the Detroit Pistons, advancing to the NBA Finals for the first time in the 37-year history of the franchise. The Cavs are one of only three teams in the NBA (Detroit and San Antonio) to advance past the first round of the NBA Playoffs in each of the last three seasons. The team is also one of only five current NBA teams (Dallas, Detroit, Phoenix and San Antonio) to have three straight seasons of 45 or more regular season wins.

In their inaugural season at The Q, the Monsters recorded four of the top seven – including the top two – highest-attended individual games in the entire AHL for the 2007-08 season. The Monsters also sent 11 players up to play with their NHL affiliate, the Colorado Avalanche. Following the season, the Monsters game presentation efforts were honored with the 2008 Golden Matrix Award for Best Overall Video Display – Minor League Division from the Information Display and Entertainment Association.

Quicken Loans, Inc. closed $19 billion in home loan volume in calendar 2007. The company employs 3,000 people and is ranked #2 on FORTUNE magazine's "100 Best Companies to Work For" in America list. It has been in the "top 20" of FORTUNE's list the past five years. The company also has been ranked #1 or #2 on Computerworld Magazine's list of the "100 Best Places to Work in Technology" the past four consecutive years.

Dan founded Rock Financial in 1985 as a 22–year old first–year law student. Rock Financial grew into one of the largest independent mortgage banks in the country. In 1998, the company went public in an IPO led by Bear Stearns, Inc.

In January 1999, the company launched its Internet strategy which quickly positioned itself as the leader in online retail mortgages. In January 2000, software maker Intuit purchased Rock Financial and the national Web business was renamed "Quicken Loans." With Dan staying on as CEO, Quicken Loans became the leading national provider of home loans on the Internet. Quicken Loans has gone on to earn "Best of the Web" accolades from Forbes, Money and PC Magazines.

In 2002, Gilbert led a small group of private investors and purchased Quicken Loans Inc., back from Intuit and has been privately held since that time. The company retains all rights to the 'Quicken Loans, Inc.' trademarks.

Dan and his partners also operate and invest in several consumer–based, technology-centered businesses, including: online promotions company ePrize (eprize.com), based in Pleasant Ridge, Mich.; Fathead LLC (fathead.com) in Livonia, Mich.; Veritix (www.veritix.com) in Cleveland, Ohio and Boston-based Xenith LLC (www.Xenith.com).

Fathead LLC, exclusively licenses and sells a new category of product for the true sports enthusiast. A "Fathead" is a life-size, colorful, vinyl wall graphic of popular sports stars from the NBA, NFL, NHL and MLB in an action pose, as well as pro and college team helmets and logos, in addition to NASCAR racecars and Hollywood entertainment characters.

Veritix has created technology and processes that replace physical tickets for large sports and entertainment events with an electronic approach and offers a secure, online marketplace for transferring and selling tickets in a digital format. The Cavaliers are the first team in professional sports to use this new technology.

Xenith LLC has developed an innovative helmet technology that reduces the risk and severity of concussions and other traumatic brain injuries.

Dan was Rawlings Sporting Goods' largest shareholder and was instrumental in effecting the sale of Rawlings to K2 in March 2003.

Gilbert is a founding partner in private equity group Rockbridge Growth Equity LLC. The partnership invests in growing businesses in the financial services, Internet technology, consumer direct marketing, and the sports and entertainment sectors.

He also is an investor and financier with Rock Companies (rockcompanies.com) in residential and commercial real estate developments in several states.

Other significant investments include Xeko (xeko.com), a Seattle-based children’s media property that includes a trading game, planned cartoon series, movies and licensing of a playing card game featuring threatened species in 34 environmental “hot spots” in the world.

Dan recently launched Bizdom U (bizdom.com) in Detroit. This non-profit academy trains, mentors and finances young entrepreneurs and their start-up businesses in the city of Detroit. Bizdom U's mission is to create successful businesses, jobs, growth and wealth in large urban cities.

Through Rock Financial, Dan also was the lead sponsor of Rock Financial JA Finance Park in downtown Detroit, a program that teaches school age children about money and finance.

Gilbert serves on the board of the Children's Hospital of Michigan Foundation; the Cleveland Clinic; the Children's National Medical Center in Washington, DC; and the Children's Tumor Foundation in New York City.

Dan has been the keynote speaker at Harvard Business School, the University of Michigan and the national NAACP conference, among other organizations.

He is a frequent guest on CNBC's business programs including "guest hosting" CNBC's Morning Call as well as numerous appearances on ESPN, CNN and FOX.

Gilbert earned his bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and his law degree from Wayne State University.

He has received the "Entrepreneur of the Year" award from Ernst & Young and has been inducted into the Junior Achievement Hall of Fame.

Dan resides in Michigan with his wife and their 5 children. He also spends a great deal of time in Cleveland and attends virtually all Cavaliers games at The Q.

Danny Ferry
General Manager

Danny Ferry was named the eighth general manager in Cleveland Cavaliers history on June 27, 2005.

Ferry has focused on building a championship-caliber culture in his three seasons with the Cavaliers. Helping to lead the team, through many successful signings and acquisitions, to back-to-back 50-win seasons was only the beginning. The Cavs are currently one of just three teams to advance to at least the second round in each of the past three seasons including the franchise's first-ever trip to the NBA Finals under Ferry's leadership.

In addition to player acquisitions, Ferry also oversees all scouting, player personnel and day-to-day activities of the Cavaliers' basketball operations team.

Ferry spent two seasons from 2003-2005 as the director of basketball operations for the San Antonio Spurs. As the director of basketball operations for the Spurs, Ferry was actively involved in all aspects of the basketball operations department with an emphasis on the draft and free agency. He also aided in the strategic planning for Spurs Sports and Entertainment.

During his time in the Spurs front office, San Antonio compiled a combined regular season and playoff record of 138-59 (.701). While in San Antonio, he won NBA Championships as both a member of the front office (2005) and as a player (2003).

Ferry, a 13-year NBA veteran, played the final three years of his career in San Antonio (2000-03). Prior to that, he spent 10 seasons in Cleveland as a member of the Cavaliers. He played in a franchise-record 723 regular season games (154 starts) and averaged 7.8 points and 3.0 rebounds in 20.8 minutes per game. Ferry's best season came during the 1995-96 season when he played in all 82 games (79 starts) with averages of 13.3 points and 3.8 rebounds in 32.7 minutes per game.

For his career, Ferry played in 917 games (186 starts) and averaged 7.0 points, and 2.8 rebounds in 19.8 minutes per game. He also played in 67 career playoff games (15 starts) in nine playoff appearances.

Ferry was the second overall pick in the 1989 NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Clippers. He spent the next season playing in Italy before the Cavaliers acquired Ferry along with Reggie Williams in exchange for Ron Harper, two first-round draft picks and a second-round pick from the Clippers on November 16, 1989.

Ferry won the 1989 Naismith Award as the nation's top player after averaging 22.6 points, 7.4 rebounds and 4.7 assists per game during his senior season at Duke. He was named First Team All-American as both a junior and a senior. He had his jersey retired at Duke and was inducted into the Duke Sports Hall of Fame in September 2004.

Ferry's father, Bob Ferry, was vice president/general manager of the Washington Bullets for 17 years and played in the NBA from 1959 through 1969 while his brother, Bobby, played at Harvard University and was selected by Atlanta in the seventh round of the 1985 NBA Draft.

Ferry (born Oct. 17, 1966) and his wife, Tiffany, have four daughters and one son: Hannah, Grace, Sophia, Lucy and Jackson.

Lance Blanks
Assistant General Manager

Lance Blanks was named assistant general manager for the Cleveland Cavaliers in July of 2005. He spent the previous five seasons with the San Antonio Spurs where he was a part of two NBA Championships working in various positions in the front office.

As assistant general manager, Blanks assists General Manager Danny Ferry in all basketball operations of the franchise.

Prior to joining the Cavaliers, Blanks served as the director of scouting for the Spurs. He joined the Spurs in 2000 as a scout and was promoted to director of scouting in September of 2002. In San Antonio, Blanks served as Spurs television analyst for both the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons.

He played three seasons in the NBA after being drafted in the first round of the 1990 NBA Draft (26th overall pick) by the Detroit Pistons. Blanks spent two seasons with the Pistons and one with the Minnesota Timberwolves, averaging 2.0 points in 142 career games. He also played one season in the CBA and three in Europe, where he led teams in Hungary and Cyprus to league championships.

Blanks earned Texas "Mr. Basketball" honors in 1985 at McCullough High School (now The Woodlands) before going on to the University of Texas, where he led the Longhorns to the Elite Eight in the 1990 NCAA Tournament. While a resident of San Antonio, former mayor, Ed Garza, appointed Blanks to the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame organizing committee.

Blanks is active in the NBA's global basketball development and community outreach program, Basketball Without Borders-Africa. This league initiative unites top young basketball players to promote the sport and encourage positive social change in the areas of education, health and wellness. Working as a camp director, Blanks has been involved with the program every year since its inception in 2003.

He also serves on the steering committee for the Ron Brown Scholar Program, established in 1996 to provide academic scholarships, service opportunities and leadership experiences for young scholars of outstanding promise. It ranks as one of the nation's leading scholarship programs for youth.

Blanks (born Sept. 9, 1966) and his wife Renee have two daughters, Riley and Bryn. Riley is a top rated junior tennis player. His father, Sid, played eight years in the NFL for Houston, Washington and New England and his cousin, Larvel Blanks, played Major League baseball for eight years.

Chris Grant
Assistant General Manager

Chris Grant joined the Cleveland Cavaliers as the club's assistant general manager in July 2005. He spent the previous nine seasons with the Atlanta Hawks where he was promoted in 2004 to the position of vice president of basketball operations and assistant general manager.

Grant oversees the domestic and international scouting departments and assists General Manager Danny Ferry in all basketball operations of the franchise. He also spearheaded the design and construction of the new state-of-the-art Cavaliers player development center, Cleveland Clinic Courts, which opened at the start of the 2007 season. The 50,000 square foot facility is one of the most technologically advanced team development centers in pro sports.

In his nine years with the Hawks, Grant held six different positions including video intern, video coordinator, advance scout, assistant director of scouting, director of scouting and vice president/assistant general manager.

Grant, a graduate of the University of San Diego, earned a degree in psychology. He also received a master's degree in educational leadership from USD. Grant spent three seasons on the school's basketball team after transferring from Canada Junior College.

He and his wife Kelly have two sons, Cameron and Boden.

Mike Brown
Cleveland Cavaliers Head Coach

Mike Brown was named the 17th head coach in Cleveland Cavaliers history on June 2, 2005. In his first three seasons at the helm of the Cavaliers, Brown has quickly become one of the NBA's top young coaches.

During the 2007 Playoffs, Brown led the Cavaliers to their first Eastern Conference Championship and a trip to the NBA Finals after Cleveland knocked off the Pistons 4-2 in the Eastern Conference Finals. He guided the Cavaliers to their first series sweep in the first round versus Washington and then led Cleveland to a 4-2 win in the conference semifinals against New Jersey. In the 2008 Playoffs, the Cavaliers defeated the Washington Wizards 4-2 before taking the eventual NBA Champion Boston Celtics to a seven-game series. Cleveland is one of only three teams (Detroit and San Antonio) to have reached at least the second round of the playoffs in each of the last two seasons. In three playoff appearances, Brown has a record of 26-20 (.565) making him the winningest playoff head coach in team history.

Brown has led the Cavaliers to at least 45 wins in each of his first three seasons in Cleveland. It marks just the second time in team history (1991-92 to 1993-94) that Cleveland reached that mark in three straight seasons. The only other teams with 45 or more wins in each of the last three seasons are Dallas, Detroit, Phoenix and San Antonio. After posting the most wins as a first-year head coach in team history in 2005-06 (50-32 record), Brown followed that up with another 50-win season (50-32) in his second year. Cleveland posted 45 wins during the 2007-08 season and made their third consecutive appearance in the NBA playoffs. With a combined regular season record of 145-101 (.589) in three seasons, Brown has the highest winning percentage of any head coach in Cavs history.

During his first season as head coach, he became the winningest first-year head coach in team history and led Cleveland to Eastern Conference Semifinals in the 2006 Playoffs. He became the first coach in franchise history to lead his team to a playoff series win in his first season by defeating Washington 4-2 in the first round of the Eastern Conference playoffs in 2006. In addition, he became the first rookie head coach since Rick Carlisle in 2001-02 to post 50 wins in a season.

Brown joined the Cavaliers after spending two seasons as the associate head coach of the Indiana Pacers and three seasons as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Spurs. His career record as an assistant coach was 341-201 (.629) and he won a division title with Indiana in 2003-04 and three straight division titles with San Antonio. He helped lead Indiana to consecutive playoff appearances including a trip to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2004. He was also on the bench for the Spurs during their 2003 World Championship season. While with the Spurs, Brown's teams won at least 58 games each season. He also was the head coach for the Spurs' summer league teams in Boston and Salt Lake City.

Brown spent three years with the Washington Wizards' staff beginning in 1997, spending the first two years as an assistant under Bernie Bickerstaff, and his final year as the team's professional scout.

The 38-year-old (born March 5, 1970 in Columbus, OH) began his NBA career with the Denver Nuggets in 1992, where he spent five seasons, first as the team's video coordinator and then as a scout.

He participated in the NBA's "Basketball Without Borders" program in Johannesburg, South Africa in the summer of 2006. Mike and his wife, Carolyn, are actively involved in the Cavaliers' community relations initiatives including "Shoes and Clothes For Kids" and "Cleveland Christian Home."

Brown is a 1992 graduate of the University of San Diego with a degree in business. He played basketball two seasons at USD after spending two years at Mesa Community College. He attended high school in Germany at Wurzburg American High School. He and Carolyn have two sons, Elijah and Cameron.

Hank Egan
Assistant Coach

Hank Egan was named an assistant coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers in June 2005. He brings a wealth of knowledge to the organization boasting nearly 40 years of basketball coaching experience.

Egan joined the Cavaliers after spending the 2002-03 season as an assistant coach with the Golden State Warriors. He came out of a brief retirement to join the Warriors coaching staff and helped lead Golden State to its then-highest win total (38-44) since the 1993-94 campaign.

Prior to joining the Golden State coaching staff, Egan spent the previous eight seasons as an assistant coach with the San Antonio Spurs and helped guide the club to an NBA Championship in 1999. During his tenure with San Antonio, the Spurs compiled a 403-221 (.646) record and made seven trips to the NBA Playoffs. He also assisted in leading the Spurs to five Midwest Division titles and the NBA's best record four times.

Before joining the Spurs, Egan spent 23 years as an NCAA Division I head coach including 10 seasons at the University of San Diego (1984-1994). During the 1986-87 campaign, he guided the Toreros to a 24-6 record and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Egan began his coaching career in 1966 as an assistant coach at the Air Force Academy. In 1971 he was named the head coach at Air Force where he remained until 1984 when he was named head coach at the University of San Diego.

Having earned a reputation as one of the top defensive coaches in the country during his collegiate tenure, Egan received West Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors following back-to-back seasons in 1985-86 and 1986-87. Additionally, Egan was a scout for the 1984 U.S. Olympic Basketball Team and was one of the coaches at the 1984 Olympic Trials.

Egan, 71 (born Aug.17, 1937), is a 1960 graduate of the Naval Academy earning a degree in engineering. He and his wife Judy, have two children, John and Kelly, and five grandchildren.

Melvin Hunt
Assistant Coach

Melvin Hunt was named an assistant coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers in September 2005. He came to Cleveland having spent the 2004-05 season as an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Lakers under Head Coach Rudy Tomjanovich.

Prior to his time with the Lakers, Hunt spent five seasons with the Houston Rockets. He served as the Rockets' college and international scout during the 2003-04 season. Before working as a scout he spent two seasons on the Rockets' bench as an assistant coach. Originally he joined the Rockets basketball staff as a video coordinator/scout and spent two seasons in that role.

Prior to working in the NBA, Hunt coached on both the collegiate and high school levels. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Temple High School before moving to the college ranks where he was an assistant coach at Incarnate Word University in San Antonio.

Hunt earned his Bachelor's degree in business administration and a Master's degree in education from Baylor University where he spent four years on the basketball team. He was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter for the Bears from 1987-91 and helped lead his team to both the NCAA and NIT tournaments. Following his graduation, Hunt played professional basketball in the Caribbean and Mexico.

He is a native of Tallulah, Louisiana. Hunt (born Dec. 15, 1969) and his wife, Carmen, have a daughter, Braya and a son, Miles.

Chris Jent
Assistant Coach / Director of Player Development

Chris Jent was named director of player development/assistant coach in November of 2006.

He was an assistant coach for the Orlando Magic during the 2004-05 season before being named Orlando's interim head coach for the final 18 games of the season. Prior to his one year stint with the Magic, he spent the 2003-04 season with the Philadelphia 76ers as assistant coach/player development.

Jent coached one year of high school basketball for Westhill High School in Stamford, Connecticut in 2002-03. Prior to that he spent 10 seasons playing professionally, including two years in the NBA. He was a member of the 1994 NBA Champion Houston Rockets and also played for the New York Knicks during the 1996-97 season. Jent played five seasons in the CBA and also spent time playing overseas in Australia, Italy, Spain and Greece.

Jent, a native of Sparta, N.J., graduated from The Ohio State University with a degree in Communications. He played four seasons (1988-92) at Ohio State and helped lead the Buckeyes to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments and back-to-back Big Ten Championships. He played in 123 games and scored 1,007 career points including 112 three-point field goals which ranks seventh all-time in Ohio State history.

Chris (born Jan. 11, 1970) and his wife, Alice, have one son Jimmy and two daughters Corrin and Robin.

John Kuester
Assistant Coach

John Kuester was named an assistant coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers in August of 2007.

Kuester joined the Cavaliers following a season as an assistant coach with the Orlando Magic. He also spent time as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia 76ers during the 2005-06 season and with the New Jersey Nets in 2004-05.

During the 2003-04 season, Kuester was an assistant coach for the Detroit Pistons as he helped the Pistons capture the 2004 NBA Championship.

Kuester spent six seasons as a member of the 76ers coaching staff from 1997-98 to 2002-03. He helped the 76ers reach the NBA Finals during the 2001 season and the playoffs in five of his six seasons in Philadelphia.

For seven seasons, from 1990-1997, Kuester was a member of the Boston Celtics organization including the final two seasons as an assistant coach. He arrived in Boston after five seasons as the head coach at George Washington University from 1985-1990. Kuester became the youngest head coach in Division I in 1983 when he succeeded Rick Pitino at Boston University. He was an assistant coach for the Terriers for two seasons prior to his head coaching appointment. Kuester began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant coach at The University of Richmond during the 1980-81 season.

Kuester is a graduate of the University of North Carolina where he played four seasons under Dean Smith from 1973-77. He won two ACC Championships and reached the NCAA Tournament three years and the National Invitational Tournaments one year including a trip to the NCAA Finals in 1977 during his time in Chapel Hill. As a senior, he was voted the team's best defensive player for the second straight season and the MVP of both the ACC Tournament and the NCAA East Regionals.

Kuester was selected in the third round (53rd overall) of the 1977 NBA Draft by the Kansas City Kings. He played three seasons in the NBA, one each with Kansas City, Denver and Indiana.

Born on Feb. 6, 1955, John and his wife, Tricia, have a son, John III, and a daughter, Katelyn (Katie). John is a senior at St. Joseph's University and Katie is a rising freshman on St. Joseph's women's basketball team.

Michael Malone
Assistant Coach

Michael Malone begins his fourth season as assistant coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Malone has been instrumental in the Cavaliers success since his arrival in Cleveland, helping the Cavaliers reach at least the Eastern Conference Semifinals in each of the past three seasons. During the 2006-07 season, Cleveland reached the NBA Finals for the first time in franchise history as they topped the Washington Wizards, New Jersey Nets and Detroit Pistons to claim the team's first Eastern Conference Championship. Cleveland's run to the Finals followed a 50-win regular season for the second consecutive year.

In addition to his coaching duties with the Cavaliers, Malone is currently an assistant coach with the Canadian Men's Senior National Team. He was a member of Leo Rautins' coaching staff during the 2007 FIBA Americas Olympic Qualifying Tournament and helped lead Canada to a top-five finish which allowed them to compete in the 2008 FIBA World Olympic Qualifier.

Malone joined the Cavaliers after four seasons with the New York Knicks. Malone was an assistant coach with the Knicks after he was promoted into that position in May 2003. In his first two seasons in New York, Malone was the Knicks' coaching associate. He originally joined the Knicks as a coaching associate in the summer of 2001.

Prior to joining the Knicks, Malone spent seven years in the college ranks. He served for two years (1999-01) as the lead assistant coach at Manhattan College following one season at the University of Virginia (1998-99). Malone spent three seasons (1995-98) at Providence College after beginning his coaching career at Oakland (MI) University.

Malone's passion for the game allows him to stay busy even during the NBA's offseason. Along with his current coaching responsibilities with Canada that began in 2007, Malone has spent previous summers coaching and teaching around the globe. During the summer of 2006, he participated in the NBA's "Basketball Without Borders" program in Puerto Rico and coached at the Nike All-Asia Camp in China. The previous summer he participated in "Basketball Without Borders" in Argentina. In addition, he has been the head coach for the Cavaliers' summer league entry, the Knicks' summer league teams for two seasons and was one of six NBA coaches to participate in the NBA Pre-Draft camp in Chicago during the summers of 2004 and 2005.

Malone played college basketball at Loyola College (MD) and graduated with a BA degree in 1994. He graduated from New Jersey's Seton Hall Prep and also attended Worcester Academy (MA).

Michael is the son of former Cavaliers' Head Coach and current Orlando Magic Assistant Coach Brendan Malone. Brendan, a 22-year veteran of the NBA, was named as an assistant coach for Cleveland prior to the start of the 2004-05 season and then was named the team's head coach on March 21, 2005. Michael is one of Brendan and his wife Maureen's six children.

Malone and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Caitlin and Bridget.
